

5777 West Century Blvd
Suite 1700
Los Angeles, CA
310.348.7367

“13 Microsoft Nominations in 8 years”

Archeon Seeks Growth with Help of MedInformatix's Technology

Archeon, powered by MedInformatix, provides a fully integrated electronic health records system designed for Multi-disciplinary behavioral healthcare applications.

Los Angeles, CA-January 2007-Archeon, a valued partner of MedInformatix, based out of Carmel, Indiana is in the process of increasing its market share in the community. Based on the mental health field created by a collaboration of IT professionals and behavioral healthcare clinicians, Archeon focuses on the workflow of the front office, clinical, financial, managerial and executive healthcare professionalism. “We believe that Archeon provides the most comprehensive package designed for the behavioral science field and truly honored to have them as a partner” noted Thomas McGonigle, Chief Executive Officer of MedInformatix. MedInformatix provides Archeon the engine and tools necessary to be on top of technological spectrum in the healthcare field. Archeon provides the industry focus and workflow designed to meet the needs of this niche market.

About Archeon - Launched in 2003 with an initial installation by Behavior Corp, located in Indianapolis, Indiana. BehaviorCorp is a provider of mental healthcare services to a community of over 1.3 million people, with over 160 providers that see in excess of 8,200 patients, which comprises over 250,000 patient visits annually. Their staff consists of more than 240 employees. BehaviorCorp is a large non-profit provider of mental health and addiction care services.

About MedInformatix - The recipient of 13 Microsoft nominations in 8 years, MedInformatix is a leading national provider of fully integrated electronic records and practice management. Medinformatix knows that the process is much more than a means to an end. We provide software and services to healthcare related niche market. We have designed our database engine and workflow processes to allow business partners quick entry into niche healthcare specialties. With over 900 installations using our suite of product in major specialties, Medinformatix enjoys proven success. If your company is need of an Electronic health record, including scheduling and billing please call us. We offer OEM opportunities along with other marketing vehicles. Medinformatix can get you to market quicker and cheaper while avoiding the risks associated with software development. We have helped business partners enter over 15 specialties from Internal medicine to mental health