

2009 MedInformatix Joint User Group Meeting

Course Descriptions

Scheduling Refresher Course

Designed for Office Manager and Office /Scheduling Staff who are familiar with Scheduling, this course offers a second look at Scheduling in MedInformatix. Learn about different ways to schedule an appointment in Books View, Set Appointment View, Search View and via Appointment Wizard.

Advance Scheduling

Designed for Office Manager and Office/Scheduling Staff who are experts on Scheduling, this course will cover new scheduling features and offers tools to optimize existing scheduling functionalities. This course will also cover reporting and performance tracking aspects of Scheduling.

Billing Refresher Course

Designed for Billing Manager/ Staff, Practice Administrator and Office Manager, this course will cover new features in Billing and offers a second look at Charge Entry, Claims Processing, and Payments. The course will also cover the time-saving benefits of MI Auto-Remittance module.

Advance Billing

Designed for Billing Manager/ Staff, Practice Administrator and Office Manager, this course will cover new billing features and offers tools to optimize existing billing functionalities.

Collection

Designed for Billing Manager/Staff, Practice Administrator and Office Manager, this course will broaden your knowledge and use of the Collections Modules. Attendees will learn practical, revenue- enhancing skills such as creating and assigning criteria-specifics work list, utilizing collection ticklers and other Collections procedures.

Security

Designed for Practice Administrator and Office Manager, this course will go over security settings and options within MedInformatix.

PM Reporting

Designed for Managers, Administrator and Executives, this course offers a refresher course in reports generation and selection. Attendees will learn to generate Ad-hock reports and export reports to Excel, Crystal Reports and other reporting software for further manipulation.

Advance Reporting

Designed for Managers, Administrators and Executives who are experts on generating Reports, this course offers an in-dept look on how to create and custom reports using Med- Reports and Crystal Reports. Attendee should have Crystal Reports loaded on laptop to participate in this course. Previous experience with Crystal Reports is recommended.

Auto Remittance

Designed for Billing Managers/ Staff, Practice Administrators and Office Manager, this demonstration will provide an overview on how the Auto Remittance can save your practice time and money, eliminate human errors and speed up your billing cycle.

Web Referring Module

Designed for Managers, Administrators and Executives of specialty practices, this demonstration will provide an overview on how the Web Referring Module helps track and generate referral business. An interactive tool allowing referring physicians to receive patient reports, request appointments and more!

2009 MedInformatix Joint User Group Meeting

Course Descriptions

Advance Integration with ZirMed

Design for Managers, Administrators and Executives, this demonstration will provide an overview on some of the advance ZirMed integrations available to MI users. These advance integration allows complete automation in claims processing and allows batch eligibility checking of future appointments.

MI Patient Portal

Designed for all users of MedInformatix; this demonstration will show case our newest Patient Portal Module.

Hospital Download Module

To be announced.

A-Life Integration

Designed for Billing Manager/ Staff and Practice Administrator, this demonstration will showcase our newest integration to A-Life to improve the accuracy and speed of your claims.

MI Executive Dashboard

Designed for Managers, Administrators and Executive Management; MI Dashboard offers a snapshot of your practice's financial, clinical and patient data.

Road to EMR Implementation

Designed for Providers, Clinical Staffs, and Practice Administrators who are looking to adopt EMR in the near future, this course will provide a roadmap to EMR Implementation and offers tips on how to evaluate an EMR system. Attendees will also learn the benefits and challenges associated with implementing an EMR solution.

EMR Refresher Course

Designed for Providers and Clinical Staffs, this course will cover new features in EMR and revisit standard EMR templates and workflow.

EMR Customization

Designed for Providers, Clinical Staff and System Administrators, this course will cover new features in EMR and learn the basic on how to manipulate and customize your existing Decision Tree.

Advance EMR Customization

Designed for Providers, Clinical Staff and System Administrators who are experts on MedInformatix EMR, this course will cover advance customization techniques, clinical tables and other advance features.

E-Prescribing

Designed for Providers, Clinical staffs and Practice Administrator, this class offers an overview on e-Prescribing bonus and regulations. Attendees will view a demonstration of MI eRX module and contribute to future development direction in the discussion group.

MI Print Server Module

Designed for all users of MedInformatix, this course will demonstrate the benefits and application of MI Print Server Module. Simplify and automate reports distribution and eliminate paper whenever possible.

Clinical Reporting

Designed for Providers, Clinical Staffs, Practice Administrators and System Administrators, attendees will learn to extract valuable clinical information and create Ad-Hoc reports.

MI PDF Tool

Designed for all MedInformatix Users; this demonstration will showcase our newest tool to eliminate paper in your office and make EMR adoption easier than ever!

2009 MedInformatix Joint User Group Meeting

Discussion Sessions and Other Trainings

EMR Roundtables*:

Ophthalmology Round Table*

Radiology/ Oncology Round Table*

Primary Care Round Table*

Orthopedic Round Table*

Cardiology Round Table*

Practice Management Round Table*

Interface/ Other Round Table*

EMR Focus Group

Share your EMR challenges and success.

And give your suggestion for future versions of MedInformatix EMR!

Site Specific Training

Design for all attendees, this Site-specific training class allows you to go over training topics specific to your practice. Small class with 6-1 attendee to instructor ratio provides a more intimate setting for training and Q/A. Limited availability, first come, first serve.

* Round table session may be combine/split based on number of attendees in the group.